RE: Institutional Wholesale Co., Inc. (Addendum) - Schools

Dear Robby:

Pursuant to your request dated February 2, 2022, I have reviewed the contract addendum between Anderson County and above-referenced contractor for legal form. After review, I am satisfied this document meets or exceeds all requirements for contract formation under Tennessee law. Therefore, I have approved this contract as to legal form.

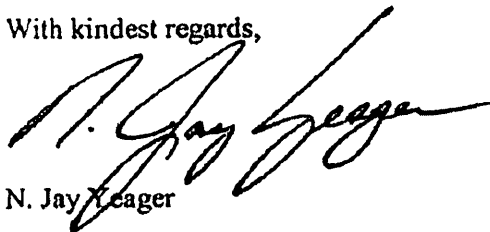

Please note this contract addendum relieves the contractor for pricing set forth in the original contract, dated July 1, 2021; therefore, budgetary appropriations reserved for this contractual arrangement will need to be increased.

In addition, since this contract addendum extends beyond the current fiscal year, it will require Commission approval.

This approval is to legal form only. I assume, since you submitted this contract to my office for approval that you have read this agreement, and the terms and conditions set forth are desirable to you and the department involved. I have not been involved in the negotiations of this contract addendum; however, if you would like additional guidance and advice regarding a specific provision of the addendum, please feel free to contact me. Furthermore, for the purpose of the approval process, it is assumed that the original contract was properly bid, if required, and budgeted according to state law.

Please call or write, if you have additional questions or concerns.

With kindest regards,

N. Jay Yeager

Current Update on Continued Impact of Supply Chain Disruptions

NOTICE

Implementation of Price Revision Procedures and Addendum to Foodservice Contract

Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, IWC Food Service ("IWC") has provided ongoing communications to our Customers, in regard to supply chain disruptions, product and labor shortages, and other challenges directly impacting our distribution operations, and likewise our Customers' foodservice operations. The IWC Contract Sales Team remains in direct contact with each Customer to address their specific needs, and we periodically issue a communication like this letter to convey general information applicable to all of our Customers. We sincerely appreciate the close-working relationship we maintain with each School Nutrition Supervisor and the thoughtful, patient, and flexible approach you have demonstrated as we address a wide range of constantly changing distribution challenges together.

CURRENT UPDATE

While I'm sure all of us had hoped that the COVID-19 pandemic and supply chain crisis would have ended by now, or at least significantly subsided, that certainly doesn't seem to be the case. With the emergence of the Delta and Omicron variants of COVID, the pandemic continues to adversely impact and limit the operating capacity of domestic and foreign manufacturers, suppliers, transportation companies, and supporting businesses.

Especially challenging over the past several months has been the increasing rate of inflation as a key factor adversely affecting the U.S. economy. Economic indicators reflect a current rate of inflation that is the highest level seen over the past 40 years. Virtually all goods and services have exhibited a dramatic rise in prices, which is attributable to the underlying cost of raw materials and supplies, packaging (cardboard and plastics), fuel and freight, insurance and utilities; as well as significant wage increases necessary to attract and retain workers.

As a result of continuing supply chain issues, coupled with rampant inflation, the overall economic landscape for school foodservice and contracted institutional business appears to be undergoing some fundamental changes. Many manufacturers have invoked a force majeure provision and advised IWC they will no longer honor the lower deviated cost prices which they agreed to and communicated to IWC for purposes of our bid proposals for the current school year. We have also been informed by various industry professionals that due to overall manufacturing shortages, it is possible that available inventory supply of certain products may be allocated to retail market customers where the products can be sold at typically-higher retail prices without being subject to lower deviated cost pricing granted to schools and institutions.

Update to IWC School Customers
January 31, 2022

As you are aware, basic foodservice items, such as cooking oil, canned fruits, proteins, and serving trays to mention a few, have all experienced significant price volatility and shortages during this school year. Across all food categories, IWC has experienced a blended average increase in cost of goods approximating 18.0%. Accordingly, IWC's procurement specialists are continually working to identify alternate vendor sources for sufficient quantities of comparable school-oriented products, at the most cost effective prices available, to allow us to maintain the highest fill rate possible for our customers.

For the past couple of months, IWC's Contract Sales Team has been communicating price increases for certain bid items to school systems on an Intermittent basis, as we received notifications from manufacturers. Our goal was to inform you in advance of significant price changes and give you an opportunity to possibly re-work your menus with alternate products deemed to be more cost effective. However, as time has elapsed, an increasing number of manufacturers are electing to forego their deviated cost pricing structure and/or impose price increases on incoming orders. Therefore, we find it administratively necessary, and believe it will be mutually-beneficial, to streamline the process of communicating price revisions to you by implementing a standardized procedure for all of our School Customers.

IMPLEMENTATION OF PRICE REVISION PROCEDURES

PART 1 – Implementation of Monthly Price Revision Procedures for Bid Items: Beginning in February 2022, and continuing each month thereafter, IWC will generate and email a "Monthly Price Revision Listing" of bid items for which the current bid price will be revised due to a price change imposed on IWC by the applicable manufacturer. Revised bid prices will initially become effective on February 14, 2022, and then on the 1st day of each month thereafter. Detailed procedures are as follows:

- IWC will email the Monthly Price Revision Listing to each School Nutrition Supervisor at least one week prior to the start of the next month to allow time for you to review, approve, and input price changes in your bid system, and/or consider alternate, more cost-effective products that may better meet your needs.
- For a price change of $0.00 to $0.25 per case, no price revision will be applied by IWC. The current bid price will remain unchanged and the item will not be included in the Monthly Price Revision Listing.
- For a price change of $0.26 or greater per case, the item will be included in the Monthly Listing to notify you that the revised bid price will replace the current bid price effective as of the 1st day of the next month.
- Under this procedure, IWC will apply both price increases and price decreases when determining the revised price of a bid item.
- Should you decide that a particular item no longer meets your needs and you plan to discontinue purchasing that item, please notify the IWC Contract Sales Team so that we can adjust our forward buying quantities from the applicable vendor as quickly as possible.
- Based upon recent correspondence with vendors and price revisions already communicated over the past few months, we believe the number of items that may be included on future Monthly Price Revision Listings will likely decline after the first month or two as we proceed through the school year.

Update to IWC School Customers
January 31, 2022

CONCLUSION AND OUTLOOK

As stated previously, we greatly appreciate working with you and we trust that the new procedures outlined herein will be implemented effectively and with minimal continuing effort. I think it is fair to say that we are all just adapting to the reality of unforeseen events and conditions that have emerged primarily as a result of the economic pressures imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Looking ahead, we remain hopeful and cautiously optimistic that impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic will continue to recede, U.S. economic conditions and the rate of inflation will improve, more unemployed persons will feel a calling to return to the workforce, and the overall domestic and foreign supply chain will return to a more familiar state of normalcy.

Based on IWC's experience of over 65 years serving the foodservice needs of School Customers, we have recently observed some fundamental changes that appear to be developing in the school business market. We anticipate that an increasing number of manufacturers may decline to offer lower cost deviated pricing for schools and institutional customers going forward, compared to the higher pricing model they use for retail business. The potential timeframe for a decline in the rate of inflation is unpredictable, so we expect that primary business operating costs, such as fuel and labor, are likely to remain at their current level or possibly increase over the next 6 to 18 months.

As we look ahead to the 2022 / 2023 bid proposal season, we believe it is possible that many manufacturers, distributors, and other providers of services to School Customers may be reluctant to continue offering traditional fixed price costing over the term of a school year. Accordingly, we encourage School Nutrition Supervisors and Purchasing Office personnel to consider the merits of a pricing model that allows more frequent pricing updates, as set forth in this letter. Under this type of approach, both schools and foodservice distributors would benefit from a more "win-win" arrangement for bid contracts by offering some upside protection for the schools in times of decreasing prices and some downside protection for distributors in times of increasing prices. This type of approach could also entice more manufacturers and distributors to elect to compete in the overall school business marketplace.

Thank you for your continuing support and please contact me or your Contract Sales Team representative with any comments, questions, or suggestions.

Jay,

With Katherine out I'm not sure what is the next step. Margaret has struggled the past year getting supplies and we have worked with her with some additional vendors. Now this, which I am fine moving forward with this, but wanted you to put your seal of approval on it as far as addendum goes. Will this need to be approved by the Purchasing Committee and Commission?

Subject: Price/Contract Addendum for Major Distributor

Good afternoon,

I have attached an official letter from IWC, our major distributor for dry goods and refrigerated items. We have spoken before about the supply chain issues, but it is even more critical now.

IWC has asked for an addendum to the contract. In summation:

- monthly price escalations which we will receive and can shift purchases to perhaps less expensive items or at least anticipate costs I anticipate at least a 10% increase.
- an immediate charge beginning this month that would add $1.15 to each case shipped to cover the increased cost of drivers and warehouse personnel (mostly transportation costs). Approximate cost would be about $1300 each week for the district.

I do anticipate the financial impact of the above to be between $50K and $150K for the remainder of the year. We are receiving about $124K from the USDA to offset some of these escalations.

11A01
I am disappointed by this news, but I also know IWC has been a great partner of ours for over 10 years. Even though they are proposing a breach of the contract, but circumventing that with an addendum, I do not see any other way to acquire goods for the rest of the school year. I do not believe we can get anyone else to provide the goods, especially food, at this time. We have managed to get a secondary supplier for a few paper goods, but at much higher prices than last year.

It is a time sensitive document, but if we have to have county commission approve this, I believe IWC will work with us on the date.

Please let me know how you want to proceed. If you are in agreement, I would assume the Law Director would be our next stop?

Regards,

Glossary of Terms

Kelley Blue Book® Trade-In Value - This is the amount you can expect to receive when you trade in your car to a dealer. This value is determined based on the style, condition, mileage and options indicated.

Trade-In Range - The Trade-In Range is Kelley Blue Book's estimate of what you can reasonably expect to receive this week based on the style, condition, mileage and options of your vehicle when you trade it in to a dealer. However, every dealer is different and values are not guaranteed.

Kelley Blue Book® Private Party Value - This is the starting point for negotiation of a used-car sale between a private buyer and seller. This is an "as is" value that does not include any warranties. The final price depends on the car's actual condition and local market factors.

Private Party Range - The Private Party Range is Kelley Blue Book's estimate of what you can reasonably expect to receive this week for a vehicle with stated mileage in the selected condition and configured with your selected options, excluding taxes, title and fees when selling to a private party.

Excellent Condition - 3% of all cars we value. This car looks new and is in excellent mechanical condition. It has never had paint or bodywork and has an interior and body free of wear and visible defects. The car is rust-free and does not need reconditioning. Its clean engine compartment is free of fluid leaks. It also has a clean title history, has complete and verifiable service records and will pass safety and smog inspection.

Very Good Condition - 23% of all cars we value. This car has minor wear or visible defects on the body and interior but is in excellent mechanical condition, requiring only minimal reconditioning. It has little to no paint and bodywork and is free of rust. Its clean engine compartment is free of fluid leaks. The tires match and have 75% or more of tread. It also has a clean title history, with most service records available, and will pass safety and smog inspection.

Good Condition - 54% of all cars we value. This car is free of major mechanical problems but may need some reconditioning. Its paint and bodywork may require minor touch-ups, with repairable cosmetic defects, and its engine compartment may have minor leaks. There are minor body scratches or dings and minor interior blemishes, but no rust. The tires match and have 50% or more of tread. It also has a clean title history, with some service records available, and will pass safety and smog inspection.

Fair Condition - 18% of all cars we value. This car has some mechanical or cosmetic defects and needs servicing, but is still in safe running condition and has a clean title history. The paint, body and/or interior may need professional servicing. The tires may need replacing and there may be some repairable rust damage.

Tip:

It's crucial to know your car's true condition when you sell it, so that you can price it appropriately. Consider having your mechanic give you an objective report.
