RE: Lamar

Dear Katherine:

Pursuant to your request, I have reviewed the contract between Anderson County and above-referenced contractor for legal form. After review, I request that the following revisions be made:

2. Copyright/Trademark; Vendor Indemnity. Advertiser warrants that all Approved Designs do not infringe any third-party copyright or trademark or violate any state or federal law.

3. Payment Terms: Lamar will, bill Advertiser at the address set forth on the face hereof in accordance with the Invoice Schedule attached. Advertiser shall pay Lamar within thirty (30) days after the date of invoice. If Advertiser fails to pay any invoice when due, Advertiser will promptly reimburse Lamar for reasonable collection costs, including attorneys' fees, and Lamar may charge interest on the outstanding balance at a rate of 1.5% per month (or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law which ever is less), until paid. Delinquent payment shall be considered a breach of this Agreement. Payments will be applied as designated by Advertiser; non-designated payments will be applied to the oldest outstanding invoices.

13. Modification and Amendment. This Contract may be modified only by a written amendment signed by all parties.

14. Governing Law. The laws of the State of Tennessee shall govern this Contract. The Chancery Court and/or the Circuit Court of Anderson County, Tennessee shall have exclusive and concurrent jurisdiction of any disputes which arise hereunder.

Legal basis for proposed changes:

Tennessee counties operate under the state constitution and statute. Courts and Attorney General opinions hold that provisions that (a) require a county to assume liability that otherwise would fall on other parties, (b) obligate a county to insure or guarantee another's liabilities, or (c) "lend the credit" of the county, are void. See Tenn. Const. art. I, § 17 and art. II, § 31 (prohibitions against lending credit and pledging public funds); Tenn. Atty. Gen. Opns. (e.g., OAG 93-1; OAG 99-095; OAG 04-065) concluding counties cannot agree to indemnify vendors for third-party claims or otherwise promise payment of vendor liabilities.

Finally, this agreement cannot be completed within one fiscal year and therefore, must be approved by full commission prior to entry.

My review and request for modification is to legal form only. I assume, since you submitted this contract to my office for approval that you have read this agreement, and the terms and conditions set forth are desirable to you and the department involved. I have not been involved in the negotiations of this contract; however, if you would like additional guidance and advice regarding a specific provision of the contract, please feel free to contact me. Furthermore, for the purpose of the approval process, it is assumed that this contract has been properly bid, if required, and budgeted according to state law.

Please call, if you have additional questions or concerns.

With kindest regards,
